The Problems with Your Training

1. My people are too busy with their projects.
2. My people don't have access to computers and are not tech-savvy.
3. Training is too expensive and is not relevant to the AEC industry.
4. I don't know if they are applying the learning and creating change.
5. My people have many different learning styles.
6. Most online programs don't offer enough support and follow-up.
