

Emerging Leaders Alliance

Is Your Organization Seeking to Do More for Your Young Professional Members?

If so, consider becoming involved as a Partner or Sponsor in the Emerging Leaders Alliance (ELA)! The ELA is a collaboration of engineering and science-based organizations that work together to provide an annual leadership training conference for early-career professionals. The ELA's unique cross-disciplinary audience provides an enriching culture to network across the broad spectrum of engineering.

Benefits of Partnership include:

- Discounted pricing—eight (8) seats for $5,000
- Participation in program content development
- Cross-disciplinary networking for your members
- Marketing support
- Recognition in all ELA marketing materials, including the ELA website and conference program
- Active participation in a collaboration that serves the greater engineering community!

Get Involved in the ELA, and Add Your Organization to the 2017 Alliance!
