Bob Heavers

Bob has been developing leaders and helping teams succeed for the past 35 years. He was mentored to believe that ordinary people are fully capable of delivering extraordinary results. After running some wonderful companies in the beverage industry, as well as some ‘turnarounds’, he started a training business and has been Associated with Priority Management and Tracom Group (founders of SOCIAL STYLE) since 1988. Their ‘best practices’ are employed by thousands of companies globally and of every size.

Bob’s team development retreats, manager/leader training and productivity improvement workshops center around two essentials for inspired performance: 1) Everyone is onboard and fully engaged in a shared Vision; and 2) Everyone knows how much they matter. His passion is helping people bring out the best in themselves and to make a bigger difference in the world by becoming more and more useful, even indispensable, to others.

As a motivational speaker, Bob’s talks include The Leader in the Mirror, Everybody Matters, Gladly Indispensable and Overachieving Without Feeling Overwhelmed. He has a unique ability to relate with just about anyone at a heart level. Through personal stories and practical examples, he empowers his audiences to think right and to live and work with greater passion.
